SENIOR RESEARCH PARTICIPANTS WANTED

Are you interested in taking part in a photography project?

Researchers from Vancouver Island University's Department of Media Studies are partnering with Seniors Connect and are seeking participants from the community to participate in a collaborative research project.

The project will span six weeks. Participants will be asked to take photographs based on a series of questions and prompts about their experiences and perspectives regarding social isolation and integration.

A basic camera skills and photography technique workshop will be delivered by student researchers to all interested participants.

Seniors Connect will hold a Photography Exhibit featuring images from the project in October 2018, Seniors month.

Snacks and refreshments will be provided at any meetings.

Eligibility
Must be 55
or older.
